262. Tinsley on Shrader (AA)

Location; US RT. 60 W for 5.1 miles to Burley Hollow Road (715), Turn left on Burley Hollow Road and go .5 miles to Shady Mountain Road on the right. Turn right onto Shady Mountain Road and go .4 miles to mailbox # 240 on the right. Continue on Shady Mountain Road until you get to the second metal gate on the right. Go through the gate and follow the trail for .6 miles. At this point you will need to walk to the top of the ridge on your right. As you leave the flat area, you can see the remains of the Tinsley house to your left. The chimney still stands. At an earlier time this area was quite populated and there are many remains of old dwellings. The cemetery is among large trees and the area is clear of vegetation. Two stones are down and there are 2-3 metal funeral markers becoming illegible. There are also several fieldstone markers and the cemetery shows evidence of being fenced at one time.

281. Unknown on Fair Oaks

Location: US 29 Business/North Main Street to Boxwood Farm Road (739), over the railroad for 2.4 miles to Lipscomb Hollow Road (822). About 300 feet from the intersection is a red farm gate on the right and a farm lane that leads south through a woods for .28 miles to an ancient house site. A small cemetery of field stone markers is near the house site. From artifacts recovered at the site, the location was occupied by white settlers before 1800. This land was first patented by George Braxton in 1744 and sold to James Watson in 1786.

284. Unknown at Pete Eubank's

Take US 60 West to Puppy Creek Road (610), Follow Puppy Creek Road to a left turn on Pete's Farm Road (private). Go up driveway, bear left at other driveways, and stop at white house on the right. Go through farm gate into pasture and up the hill toward a large barn far up the hill. Follow a farm path up the hill to the top, but not to the large barn. The two graves are only depressions at this time, but originally were marked with large stones. The present owner reports that he thought he found the remains of an old house foundation in an area above the large barn mentioned in this description. He has no idea of who is interred in the graves.

288. Verdant Vale Cemetery

(Also known as Waugh on James River)

Location: US 29 S to a right turn on Elon Rd (130). Drive approximately 14 miles west, through Elon and Agricola, to a left turn on Waughs Ferry Rd (647). Follow Waughs Ferry Rd three miles to the James River and bear left at the fork, go through the gate, taking the second gravel road to the left. You will pass the Gibbs' residence, then continue up the hill on a farm path into the trees behind the house. The cemetery is on higher ground behind the house in a clearing on the left. A few graves are marked by fieldstones. A Gibbs memorial stone is also placed here. Dr. Phillip Gibbs is buried there. Maintained.

The property was once owned by Cornelius Thomas, then Roderick McCulloch and the Waugh family. Waughs Ferry was nearby. Verdant Vale was the name of McCulloch's plantation.

Note: The purpose of this entry is to correct data in the referenced edition and to combine two cemeteries, Verdant Vale and Waugh on the James, which are the same graveyards. Furthermore, as stated in the reference edition, Roderick McCulloch was not a minister and did not baptize George Washington. The father of Roderick, the Reverend Roderick McCulloch Sr., of Westmoreland County, baptized George Washington. Roderick, Jr., was employed by the Cabell family as a teacher. He married one of his students, Elizabeth Horsley and settled in Amherst County.

296. Watts on Burley Hollow Road

Location: US 60 W to Burley Hollow Road (615) on the left. Turn left and go to the end of Burley Hollow Road where there is a cul-de-sac. As you enter the cul-de-sac there is a gated trail on the left. Go around the gate and walk down the trail for about ¼ mile. Look to the right side of the trail through a loose wire fence. The 4 fieldstone graves are about 40 feet off the road in sparse trees. There are no inscribed stone – just four upstanding field stones. This is a very old site. Not maintained.

According to Billy Jennings, this a Watts cemetery. He remembers Mrs. Susie Shrader Burley (1st husband- Peyton Burley) Gains (1897-1989), the sister of Judge Lucian Shrader, telling him about this cemetery. The Watts were early owners of this tract of land up to 1850 when it was sold to Wash Burley.

298. Watts on Lavender Road (AKA Camden Graveyard)

Documented in an 1858 will and recorded in the Amherst County Courthouse as Camden Graveyard. The Watts family (from Richmond) placed a memorial to John Hill Watts and Sarah A. Pettit Watts at this site, even after having been informed that the land was documented as Camdens; the Watts' land being nearby. (There was Watts property near the next road, Burley Hollow Road, and there is evidence of burials there. See entry for Watts on Burley Hollow Road.)

Location: US 60 W for 4.1 miles to a left turn on Sardis Rd (615). Proceed 1.1 miles to the fork with Lavender Rd (743). Cemetery is on the hill in the fork between Lavender Rd and Sardis Rd in the woods. There are numerous fieldstone markers in rows and one modern memorial stone with an inscription.
